

Aleppo Temple First to Reach Convention Site

Special Dispatch to the Globe

BALTIMORE, June 25—Aleppo Temple of Boston arrived in this convention city this afternoon, being the first of the uniformed bodies to come for the festivities which begin Tuesday and run three days. The temperature hovered around 90.

More than 250 uniformed men escorted Potentate James J. Curry, Chief Rabban R. Gardner Wilson Jr., sst. Chief Rabban Willard P. Lombard, High Priest and Prophet Arthur A. Sondheim, Oriental Guide Lionel G. H. Palmer, Treasurer Frank W. Morrill, Asst. Recorder Harvey B. Leggee, Aide to Potentate N. Russell Lynn, Past Potentate Harry G. Pollard and Potentate's Representative H. Hutchings Parker to their quarters at the Lord Baltimore Hotel. The men then paraded to the Alcazar where they are to be quartered during the convention.

The famous Aleppo Band was under the direction of Walter M. Smith. The Foot Patrol was commanded by Maj. Benjamin R. Vaughan. The Mounted Patrol was commanded by Raywoht Burnham. The Degree Staff had Frank A. Watson in charge.

After settling at the club the Shriners were dismissed until the big parade Tuesday during which the Imperial Potentate will be escorted to the Imperial session. Some of the members left for the amusement parks while some went to Washington.
